REAPING WHILE READING BOOK CLUB

The Reading Club is designed to encourage readers to explore different genres of books and expand their general knowledge.

Each semester the Reading Club will publish a list of books from the Library Collection by various authors and from different genres: history, African-American literature, religion and theology, and inspirational to name a few. The selected titles will be placed on hold in the Library for Reading Club use.

MEMBERSHIP

Membership is FREE to HBC students, faculty and staff. However, registration is required. Please complete the Registration form in this brochure, drop it off at the Library, select your book and start Reaping while Reading

REAPING WHILE READING HOW IT WORKS

At the beginning of each 16 week semester, the Reading Lists will be posted and distributed to all students, faculty, and staff.

Reaping While Reading Book Club participants must submit the "Reaper's Reflection" form by the designated deadline to be eligible for a prize.

Prizes are awarded every four weeks, with the Grand Prize for the most books read at the end of each semester.

All participants will be featured on the Reading Club Display throughout each semester.

PRIZES

Mid-semester Prizes & Semester Grand Prize for most books read.

Reading List books can be checked-out beginning
December 1, 2016
